Vinita, Okla. Friday, January 31.

FOR CHIEF OF POLICE.
H. E. RIDENHOUR hereby announces as a candidate for the office of Chief of Police of the City of Vinita, subject to the Democratic primary in March.

FOR CHIEF OF POLICE.
L. C. COUCH authorizes the Chieftain to announce him for the office of Chief of Police, subject to the Democratic primary of Vinita.

FOR POLICE JUDGE.
JOHN W. BYRD requests his friends and the voters of Vinita to support him in the Democratic Primary in March, for Police Judge.

FOR CITY CLERK.
The Chieftain is authorized to announce R. D. COCKRELL as a candidate for the office of City Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

President-Elect Wilson and Mr. Bryan may as well take the people into their confidence and admit that the secret is out and somebody has told. The Commoner will be secretary of state and now everybody knows it.

The dependable goods offered by the Ratcliff Mercantile company at their clearance sale beginning tomorrow at prices ridiculously low should bring many customers from town and country. This store has built its reputation upon the quality of its offerings.

Writing in Collier's, Senator Beveridge says:

"The progressive viewpoint is national, affirmative, constructive, up-to-date. We view the constitution as a living thing, and study to find in it the power to do what must be done for the general welfare, instead of searching to find in it excuses for not doing what the common good demands. The progressive party is a frankly and openly liberal party, with clean-cut progressive principles stated in plain terms. This is not true of either of the old parties, whose platforms have that shifty, vague, vote-catching character which does not make either of them frankly and plainly progressive or frankly and plainly reactionary."

LINCOLN PRODUCTS.

In fair Nebraska Lincoln sits, and sends forth mighty lions. Men gather fame by starts and fits, but whose so great as Bryan's? For twenty years this man of might with wholesome truths has fed us and from the darkness to the light he peerlessly has lead us. The town that gave us William B. to reconstruct a party, should be content and full of glee—but now she springs McCarty! Now other cities wear a frown, and think the outlook foggy; two peerless leaders from one town! Is Lincoln growing hoggish? Here is the town of Alston we're thankful for the bounty if we can boast one foremost man who's known outside the county. We're thankful if a wreath of bay adorns one lone some smarty; but Lincoln had her William J., and now she springs McCarty! Oh, Lincoln, with your salty wells, and far more salty river, your music, from triumphant bells, may make the welkin quiver, but you'll be lonesome in your pride, alone you'll chant your ditties, for folks will say you should divide your fame with other cities. A peerless leader of your own, your luck was strong and hearty; it made some towns with envy moan and now you spring McCarty! McCarty!

GOOD NIGHT.

It's no essay you're going to read,
Nor the preaching of some fanatic's creed;
And indeed, I'll not take up much of your time
Nor make much effort to make this rhyme.
But what I have to say is this:
There are two sweet words that we often miss;
Yet which we would gladly recognize,
And answer with the same sweet words, much surprised.
"Good Night" are the words and to say them so
In a courteous cheery tone,
When at closing time each evening we wend our way toward home.
'Twould make the world look brighter,
And our weary hearts feel lighter,
And draw us in fellowship tighter,
As we do our next day's grind.
—A Worker.

IT MAKES ALL THE DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD.

That's what you say when you tell your friends about your shopping expeditions.
It may be the principles of the store, the service it offers or the quality of the goods it sells that you are discussing. But the difference to you means your satisfaction or disappointment.
You will find when you deal with the merchants who advertise in the Chieftain that the difference stands always for satisfaction. Each store values its reputation too much to risk disappointing you. Each wants your good will. So they direct every effort to serve you best and give you the best values.

By reading the advertisements in the Chieftain closely and constantly

OUR PRESIDENTS

FRANKLIN PIERCE, Fourteenth President. Born at Hillsborough, New Hampshire, on Nov. 23, 1804. Entered Bowdoin College in 1820 and graduated in 1824. Studied law and was admitted to practice in 1827. Elected to the Legislature of New Hampshire in 1829 and served as Speaker in 1832-33. In Congress from 1833 to 1837, when he was elected to the United States Senate. Resigned his seat in 1842 and resumed the practice of law. In 1846 he was offered the post of Attorney General of the United States, but declined it. Volunteered for service in the Mexican war and was soon after appointed Colonel, and in 1847 was made Brigadier-General. In 1852 was the candidate for President and was triumphantly elected, having 254 electoral votes against 42 given for General Scott. In his inaugural address he supported slavery and announced his determination to enforce the Fugitive Slavery Act. This was the keynote of his administration and led to the forming of the Republican party and the rebellion. He failed to secure a renomination, and after spending several years in Europe retired to his home in Concord, N. H., where he died on Oct. 8, 1869.
